TOO MILD A MAN.

SIR ARTHUR BALFOUR'S APPOINTMENT NOT SATISFACTORY TO THE TORIES.

Salisbury's Speech at the National Conservative Club—The Unionist Revolt—Russia Demands the Release of Bulgarian Insurgents—Germany's Hint to the Huns—A Trouble Between Moonlighters and the Police in Ireland—The Septennate Bill—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch. LONDON, March 7.—The appointment of Balfour as Hinks-Beach's successor causes great dissatisfaction among the Tories. They say he is far too mild a man for the post, and that the Parnellites will laugh at him. Salisbury, however, had no alternative. There is no other man at his command who has the qualifications for the most difficult position in the government. None of the crumbly members have any suggestion of a better man. The disappearance of Hinks-Beach advances home rule a very considerable stage. The Irish Secretaries are being rapidly used up, and Ireland grows more and more ungovernable. There is a tremendous clamor in the Times again for strong measures. All the intrigues with which Parnell has ever been associated in the minds of his opponents, are revived in a series of articles entitled, "KNOWLEDGE AND COURAGE."

The obvious intention of all this is to screw up the falling courage of the Ministry. How far that courage failed can be seen by Salisbury's speech on Saturday at the National Conservative Club, in which he used language which was certainly not that of confidence, and described the Irish question as a night mare which fetters one's limbs and paralyzes one's energy. A more exact description of the whole Irish policy of the Government could not have been given by Salisbury's most determined enemy. The Times has at last realized that

THE UNIONIST REVOLT has become serious, and that Trevelyan to-day as the traitor. With regard to the round-table conference, it is important to remember that everything depends on the personal relations of the negotiators. The relations between Morley and Chamberlain are still bad. Everybody concerned is afraid that as soon as the terms of the agreement become known, the attack will be made by the extremists on both sides that the round-table conference will go to pieces altogether.

THE WAR SPECTRE. GERMANY WARNS RUSSIA. BERLIN, March 7.—The Kolossal Zeitung warns Russia that even German patience toward neighbors has limits, and says: "If Russia continues to delay in settling the Franco-Russian agreement, let her beware lest she may herself have to consider a hostile Germany."

POPULARITY OF FRANCE. The Kreuz Zeitung says: "Letters from St. Petersburg state that the general hatred of Germany and the popularity of France is becoming a sort of violent epidemic in Russia."

A FRESH LOAN. BERLIN, March 7.—The deficit that will be caused in the budget by the operation of the Septennate law will be covered by a fresh loan. All projects for fresh taxation have been postponed and the session of the Reichstag will probably terminate in two months.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE EMPEROR. Emperor William yesterday received Herr Wedell Piesdorff, the President of the Reichstag. In the conversation which took place Emperor said that he was not at all hostile to the Reichstag. Despite his explanation to the Reichstag of the superiority of Germany's neighbors over her in military matters, the opposition majority refused to sanction the military bill to the necessary extent, and the reasonable hope that a tentative treaty would have been adopted, after the example given by France, proved fallacious. It was more gratifying now to cherish the hope that a large majority in the Reichstag would accept the bill on the Reichstag to the Reichstag. No turning back the Reichstag will place the Reichstag in the hands of the Reichstag. Pope during the elections, he said he had already been convinced of the pacific disposition of His Holiness, and that it was on this account that Germany had asked him to act as arbiter in the dispute in the German Islands case. In conclusion, the Emperor expressed the hope that all the ecclesiastical troubles between Prussia and the Vatican would soon be peacefully and completely settled.

THE SEPTENNATE BILL. In the Reichstag to-day, the Septennate bill formally passed its first reading. Prince Bismarck was present. The bill will be taken up for second reading to-morrow, and debate will ensue. Herr Windorst, the leader of the Clerical party, will then declare his intention to support the bill to the Septennate term. The other party leaders have announced that they will vote as they did when the bill was defeated in the late Reichstag.

England. LONDON, March 7.—The Queen will lay the foundation of the Imperial Institute some time during the summer.

Ireland. MR. KNIFE'S REPORT. LONDON, March 7.—It is stated that Mr. Knipe, member of the Irish Land Commission, has handed to the government his own individual report on the question.

MOONLIGHTERS AND POLICE. It is reported at Limerick that a gang of moonlighters have captured a police patrol. The report has caused a sensation.

AN INCENDIARY CARRIAGE. Limerick has been arrested on the charge of being the incendiary who fired a number of dwellings and barns in this county on Thursday night occupied by tenants who had paid their rents.

THE NEW CHIEF SECRETARY. Mr. Balfour, the New Chief Secretary for Ireland, has arrived here.

Bulgaria. RELEASE OF THE REBELS DEMAND. SOFIA, March 7.—Baron Tschellmann, the German Consul-General, on behalf of Russia, has demanded the release of six rebels, two of whom have already been shot. M. Fisch, the French Consul-General, has complained that Karaveloff and Tzanoff were maltreated by the Government. The Government denies the charge on the admission of the rebels themselves. The Porte has advised the Government to deal leniently with the rebels.

A RUSSIAN CONSUL AT KUSTENBUK, whose protection was sought by Capt. Boltmann, one of the leaders in the recent revolt, and who claims to be a Russian subject, has been requested by the Bulgarian authorities to surrender the rebels and has refused on the ground that his Government has not instructed him to do so.

WATCHING RUSSIA. BERLIN, March 7.—Much anxiety is felt here as to whether or not Russia will allow the execution of the Bulgarian conspirators to pass unnoticed.

"MANAGER" LONSDALE SUE. The Manager of Lonsdale has been sued by Cornelia Dank for breach of contract in failing to carry out his engagement with her as a member of the Violet Cameron Operatic troupe.

FRANCE. HOTEL-KEEPERS SELLING OUT. NICE, March 7.—In consequence of the panic caused by the recent earthquakes, hotel-keepers here are selling out at a great sacrifice. Many of the inhabitants are still camping out.

ITALY. DECLINES THE OFFICE. PARIS, March 7.—The Figaro says that on the plea of ill health, Mr. Rampolla del Tindaro, at Madrid, has declined the Papal Secretaryship made vacant by the death of Cardinal Jacobini.

THE DOMINION. EUROPEAN EMIGRATION. OTTAWA, Ont., March 7.—Advices received by the Department of Agriculture indicate that the influx of emigrants from Europe to Canada will be greater this year than ever before.

THE NATIONAL BASE BALL LEAGUE. Annual Meeting in New York City.—The Admission of the Eighth Club.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The annual meeting of the National Base Ball League began to-day at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. It is expected that the season will be a long and important one. The main questions are the selection of a club to take the vacant eighth place, and the adoption of the play schedule. Indianapolis and Kansas City are applicants for the vacant position. The Hoosiers have at last secured ample financial backing, and are confident of success. The schedule is well arranged, with but few conflicting dates. It is yet undecided whether Glasgow and other coveted players will be given to the new club or auctioned off to the highest bidder.

DELEGATES PRESENT. Mr. B. B. Dillman of New York; Henry and Gaffney of the Washingtons; Nimick and Phillips of Pittsburgh; Beach and Wright of Philadelphia; and Burman and others of the Indianapolis Club. The corridors of the hotel are thronged with delegates to consult with their chamber proceedings with great interest.

REMOVED CONSOLIDATION. An Alleged Deal Between the Western Union and B. & O. Telegraph Companies.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Stock Exchange is full of stories about a deal having been made between the Western Union and the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph Companies, and the price of the former sold higher than at any time since the December break. Brokers usually representing President Garrett of the B. & O. were heavy buyers of the stock last week, and an order to have been given to buy 25,000 shares for a prominent director of the Western Union. No confirmation can be obtained of the consolidation.

Dan Jewell, the negro who is to be hanged Friday next for the murder of his wife, is endeavoring to get rid of a bad case of pneumonia. Dr. Dorsett, the jail physician, appears determined to make Jewell's last hours on earth as miserable as possible, as he has ordered that Jewell be placed all over his body to-day, and Jewell is now suffering all the tortures of the damned. Wednesday morning the Sheriff will place the dead watch on him, and it will be retained until he is brought out on the gallows.

Small Cases Settled. William Johnson who cut James Cunningham, watchman of the car-wheel works, was held by Judge Noonan for the Grand Jury in the sum of $300 to answer to a charge of assault to kill.

Dan O'Keefe, charged with burglarizing the saloon of Edward O. Harting, and stealing $3 worth of cigars and whiskey, was allowed to plead guilty to petit larceny, and was sentenced to six months in the Work-house.

The cases of Thomas Parker and Clem Wall, charged with larceny and assault, were continued generally.

Victo Berlin and John Newman were each given four months in the Work-house for stealing $15 from J. J. Reinert.

Held for the Grand Jury. Charles Underwood and Walker Carroll, the two negroes employed by A. A. Paton & Co., who were arrested on a charge of stealing $40 worth of cotton from the firm on February 19, had a preliminary hearing before Judge Noonan to-day, and were held for the Grand Jury in the sum of $800. The case was sole prosecuted as to Alvin Wadsworth, who was a co-defendant. These are the negroes who are charged with holding out samples of cotton for inspection and selling them. The amount they are alleged to have stolen was extracted in one day it is claimed. Martin Stalworth, a colored friend of the defendants, was sentenced to ten days in jail for noisy and boisterous conduct in the court room, he being ejected for the first time, but returning again and resuming it.

The March Grand Jury. The Grand Jury for the March term of the Criminal Court was selected and sworn to this morning. It is as follows: Matthew M. Fleish, foreman, Samuel W. Barber, Joshua P. Babbington, John F. Heilmelck, Chas. S. Russell, George Cousland, Fred W. Frange, William B. Bailey, David A. Marks, John M. Doyle, George H. Ke, John D. Ranken. Only the jury by the Court, and they retired to enter upon the duties imposed upon them.

Not at Her Pier. JERRY CITY, N. J., March 7.—Up to 1 o'clock today the steamer City of Chicago had not arrived at her pier. No information could be obtained of the employees at the dock.

The Manette Social Circle was entertained last evening by Misses Tillie Block and Jack at the former's residence, at 324 South Beaumont street. The party was given in honor of the two young ladies, who have just returned from a visit to Arizona.

PLYMOUTH'S PASTOR.

HENRY WARD BEECHER, THE GREAT DIVINE, AT DEATH'S DOOR.

A Long and Weary Night Watch at the Bedside of the Dying Man—Mr. Beecher in a Comatose State and Gradually Slipping—Hourly Bulletins Issued by the Physician in Attendance.

NEW YORK, March 7.—It was a weary night for the members of the Beecher household last night. One by one they would silently move in and out of the death chamber, taking their turns at the dreary vigil. Dr. Searle was at the post of duty without intermission, until nearly 6 o'clock, when he retired to his home to snatch a few hours' rest. Mr. Beecher had kept watch over the sick man most of the night, earling he might pass away in her absence. She did, however, take a few hours' rest on the 6th, but she left word to be called the instant the slightest change in her husband's condition was noted. Col. Beecher, who lived in the house with his family, was also ready at a moment's notice to go to his father's bedside, should the last come, but the dread summons did not reach him. He remained beside the bed for a few hours while his mother took a little repose, but the brave wife did not remain long away from her husband's side, and the men were receiving no answer, decided to pull out this morning. The men were quick and orderly and manifest a determination to secure a speedy return to work. The brethren on the Pittsburg, Cleveland & Toledo Railroad put on, and it is not considered that they will strike on Tuesday. The industrial establishments are badly crippled for stock and a general shut-down is imperative this week unless traffic is resumed.

NO COMPROMISE. A Connellsville Division to Bring about a Settlement were in vain. He returned to the city this afternoon, and the strike is on. The passenger trains, and everything is very quiet, and all the meetings this morning, and the industrial establishments are badly crippled for stock and a general shut-down is imperative this week unless traffic is resumed.

THE BEECHER'S STRIKE. The efforts of Superintendent Patton to bring about a settlement were in vain. He returned to the city this afternoon, and the strike is on. The passenger trains, and everything is very quiet, and all the meetings this morning, and the industrial establishments are badly crippled for stock and a general shut-down is imperative this week unless traffic is resumed.

SPREADING. PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 7.—Only one freight train was moved on the Pittsburg division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad this morning. It was a local freight, and it was reported that the crew had orders to leave it at Connellsville. The strike is spreading, and matters are becoming complicated. The freight men joined the strikers this morning, and the passenger freemen expect to be ordered to-night. An effort was made to induce some of them to quit work this morning, but it was deemed best not to act hastily. If they conclude to continue out, the men on the mail trains will be allowed to remain, as the strikers do not care to interfere with the Unionists. The company is receiving freight for shipments this evening. The order is to induce will send out a train, but the strikers assure they will not be able to get a crew. Everything is quiet and no breach of the peace is anticipated.

THE PRINTERS' STRIKE. MILWAUKEE, March 7.—The pressmen who joined the printers' strike on Friday last returned to the several offices to-day. The back of the Typographical Union is practically broken, and the old men are endeavoring to seek their former places. The proprietors of the newspaper and job offices have signed a compact not to recognize the Union.

PLEADED GUILTY. A Colored Coachman Gets Four Years in the Penitentiary.

Two pleas were received in the Criminal Court this morning.

The first was from William Smith, the colored coachman of Mrs. F. De Donat, who was in the habit of having little white girls visit him in his stable. On the last of last August some of the neighbors discovered a white girl in the loft of his stable divested of all clothing. It was then learned that there were other girls in the stable, and that he had been having a number of young white girls call there. He was arrested, and several charges of criminal assault were preferred against him. This morning Smith withdrew his plea of not guilty, and pleaded guilty to the charge of lascivious conduct, and was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. It is very doubtful whether he could have been convicted, as the element of force would have been wanting in the offense, but, on the other hand, if convicted he would be apt to get a very heavy sentence.

FRANK JERSON, alias Johnson, charged with stealing three overcoats valued at $40 from Henry Shiers, was allowed to plead guilty to petit larceny, and was sentenced to three months in jail.

HANGED TO A TREESTLE. Alex Crawford, a Negro Murderer, Lynched by Citizens at Winona, Miss.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 7.—Special to the Avalanche from Winona, Miss., says: Alex Crawford, the negro murderer, was taken from the jail by an immense crowd of enraged citizens to-day and was hanged from a tree on the railroad near town. He made a desperate fight in his cell against the crowd, being armed with a broom-stick which he wielded with effect, but was finally overpowered. He died game, refusing to make any declarations. His victim was Vic Loggins, a prominent merchant of Winona, whom he killed on the evening of February 28.

THE CABLE ROAD. Election of Directors—A Dinner to the General Manager.

At a meeting of the St. Louis Cable & Western Railway Company, held at the office of the company this afternoon, the following directors were elected: James Richardson, Jr., A. Mansur, Edwards Whitaker, W. L. Thomson, F. M. Colburn, Dwight Tredway of St. Louis and L. Higginson of Boston. Mr. Colburn is the only member of the old directory to re-elect himself. He was elected General Manager. He will take charge to-morrow. Dwight Tredway will be President of the company.

AT THE DINING MANAGER. The St. Louis Cable & Western Railway Company is to be dined by the St. Louis Cable & Western Railway Company on the occasion of the signing of the management of the cable road. Those who will sit down with Mr. de Figueroa are T. L. Lewis, Charles G. B. Bain, Page McFarley, L. G. McNair, Geo. G. Bain, Page McFarley, Alonzo and Christy Chubb and Wilbur Beall.

THE NEGROES OUTRAGE. LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 7.—Gen. Miles last night received a telegram from Lawson, stating that troops were camped near Nogales, but anticipated no trouble. The Mexican authorities regret the outrage, and arrested all the offenders before, and the two young ladies, who have just returned from a visit to Arizona.

the Chicago Board of Trade to-day. The meeting was called to order by the President, who read a letter from the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, in which he stated that the Chicago Board of Trade had decided to refuse to consider the case of the Chicago Board of Trade.
